

The Battle of Jutland, Sanday, and the Strange Stories of the B-98 and U-70

Tuesday, 31 May 2016

Special exhibition opens at the Heritage Centre in Lady Village.

Friday, 3 June 2016

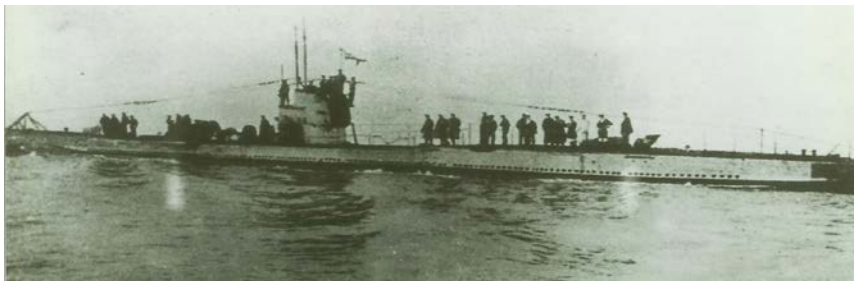

Courtesy visits by Royal Navy P 2000 Patrol boats Biter and Blazer at Kettletoft arriving around 10:00 and film show at 19:30 in Sanday Community School wing.

Saturday, 4 June 2016

Another chance to see and go aboard a P 2000 Patrol boat at Kettletoft in the morning. Then, from 12:00, various events at the Community School, including buffet lunch. At 16:00, unveiling of the new Interpretation Board at Lopness Picnic site.

Full details in the June Sanday Sound, and in the Heritage Centre.

The U-70, which grounded on Sanday in April 1918.

The B-98, used as a mail ship for the interned fleet in Scapa Flow; now lying in the Bay of Lopness.