Your Case Conference – your views

A meeting is being held because there is a concern that you are being harmed or are at risk of being harmed.

Everyone would like to see you at the meeting and hear your views.

If you don't want to come that's OK. Maybe you could answer these questions with your advocate so that the people at the meeting know how you feel?

What are you feeling worried or scared about at this time?

Who can you talk to when you are worried?

What would make your life better?

If a Review Case Conference is being held:

How have things been for you since the last Case Conference?

Has anything changed for you since the last Case Conference?
