Hello

A meeting is going to be held to make sure you are safe and well.

My views

The grown ups you live with will be at the meeting as well as other grown ups who care about you, such as your teacher and doctor.

Everyone would like to hear your views.
Would you like to come to the meeting?

Yes

No

If you don't want to come that's OK. Maybe together we could answer the questions below?
If it is OK with you, I could read your answers out to the people at the meeting to let them know how you feel.

What are the good things about living in your family?

What are the not so good things?
