1. Introduction

1.1. Background

1.1.1. This Scheme is made by Orkney Islands Council for the purposes of Section 50G of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973.

1.1.2. There shall be delegated to the Chief Executive and Corporate Directors the powers hereinafter specified, subject to the limitations and conditions stated.

1.1.3. Acts and proceedings, except as otherwise provided by statute, done in pursuance of delegated powers shall be deemed to be acts and proceedings of the Council. Such delegations are in addition to the powers of the Chief Executive and Corporate Directors to exercise responsibility for operational, functional and managerial matters falling within the scope of their service responsibilities which may not be expressly provided for or specifically detailed in this Scheme.

1.2. Interpretation

1.2.1. The Interpretation Act 1978 applies to this Scheme.

1.2.2. Any reference in this Scheme to legislation, including delegated or subordinate legislation, should be taken as including any amendments, replacement and re-enactments of such legislation currently in force.

1.2.3. References in this Scheme to authorisation to grant, approve or issue, shall also be taken to include authority to refuse or to grant, approve or issue subject to conditions.

1.2.4. In the context of this Scheme, power to serve a Notice or other proceedings shall also include power to enforce that Notice or those proceedings.

1.2.5. In any situation of uncertainty, the Chief Executive will determine:

- Whether an issue is delegated to a particular Committee/Sub-committee or a Chief Officer.
- Which Chief Officer is empowered to exercise authority which has been delegated by the Council.

1.3. Statutory and Proper Officers

1.3.1. Statutory Officers of the Council have specific duties as set out in legislation and discharge these roles as part of their wider responsibilities within the Council. They have an important, independent role in promoting and enforcing good governance and for making sure that the Council complies with legislation as follows.

1.4. Head of Paid Service

1.4.1. In terms of Section 4 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989, it shall be the duty of every relevant authority:

- To designate one of their officers as the Head of Paid Service.

- To provide that Officer with such staff, accommodation and other resources as are, in his/her opinion, sufficient to allow his/her duties under Section 5 of the 1989 Act to be performed.

1.4.2. It shall be the duty of the Head of Paid Service, where he/she considers it appropriate to do so in respect of any proposals of his/hers with respect to any of the matters specified below, to prepare a report to the authority setting out his/her proposals:

- The manner in which the discharge by the authority of its different functions is co-ordinated.
- The number and grades of staff required by the authority for the discharge of its functions.
- The organisation of the authority's staff.
- The appointment and proper management of the authority's staff.

1.4.3. The Head of Paid Service in Orkney Islands Council is the Chief Executive.

1.5. Monitoring Officer

1.5.1. It shall be the duty of every relevant authority:

- To designate one of their officers (to be known as the Monitoring Officer) as the officer responsible for performing the duties imposed by Section 5 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989.
- To provide that Officer with such staff, accommodation and other resources as are, in his/her opinion, sufficient to allow those duties to be performed.

1.5.2. The officer so designated may be the Head of Paid Service but shall not be the Chief Financial Officer.

1.5.3. It shall be the duty of the Monitoring Officer if, at any time it appears to him/her that any proposal, decision or omission by the authority, by any Committee, Sub-committee or officer of the authority, or by any Joint Committee on which the authority is represented, constitutes, has given rise to or is likely to or would give rise to:

- A contravention by the authority, by any Committee, Sub-committee or officer of the authority or by any such Joint Committee of any enactment or rule of law or of any code of practice made or approved by or under any enactment; or
- Any such maladministration or injustice as is mentioned in Part III of the Local Government Act 1974 (Local Commissioners) or Part II of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1975 (which makes corresponding provision for Scotland), to prepare a report to the authority with respect to that proposal, decision or omission.

1.5.4. It shall be the duty of the Monitoring Officer:

- In preparing a report under this section to consult so far as practicable with the Head of Paid Service and the Chief Financial Officer.
- As soon as practicable after such a report has been prepared by him/her or his/her deputy, to arrange for a copy of it to be sent to each member of the authority.

1.5.5. The Monitoring Officer in Orkney Islands Council (Solicitor to the Council) is the Head of Legal and Governance.

1.6. Officer responsible for Financial Administration

1.6.1. The Council shall, in terms of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 and Section 95 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973:

- Make arrangements for the proper administration of such of its financial affairs as it relates to its capacity as a local authority, police authority or port health authority.
- Secure that one of its officers has responsibility for the administration of those affairs.

1.6.2. The officer responsible for Financial Administration in Orkney Islands Council (the Chief Financial Officer) is the Corporate Director for Enterprise and Sustainable Regeneration.

1.7. Chief Social Work Officer

1.7.1. The Council shall, for the purposes of its functions in terms of the Social Work (Scotland) Act 1968 and the enactments contained in Section 5(1B) appoint an officer to be known as the Chief Social Work Officer.

1.7.2. The overall objectives of the Chief Social Work Officer are:

- To confidently manage the discharge of the Council's statutory social work duties.
- To ensure the provision of effective professional and objective advice to elected members and officers in the Council's provision of social work services.
- To secure the effective provision of social work services.

1.7.3. The Chief Social Work Officer in Orkney Islands Council is the Head of Children, Families and Justice Services.

1.8. Proper Officers

1.8.1. The Chief Executive is the Proper Officer for the purposes of implementing the provisions of Section 43 (Schedule 7) – Meetings and Proceedings of the Council, Committees and Sub-committees and Section 197 – Inspection and Deposit of Documents (Minutes, Reports etc) of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973.

1.8.2. The Chief Executive and the Monitoring Officer are the Proper Officers in connection with the signature and execution of, and affixation of the Common Seal of the Council to, all deeds and other documents, in terms of Sections 193 and 194 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973 and Paragraph 4 of Schedule 2 of the Requirements of Writing (Scotland) Act 1995. Either the Chief Executive or the Monitoring Officer may sign or execute, or affix the Common Seal of the Council to, any deed or other document in terms of the foregoing provisions.

1.9. Data Protection Officer

1.9.1. The General Data Protection Regulation, which came into force on 25 May 2018, replaces the Data Protection Act 1998 and makes changes to the law in relation to the processing of personal information.

1.9.2. In terms of Article 39 of the General Data Protection Regulation, the Data Protection Officer must have the ability to fulfil the following minimum tasks:

- To inform and advise the Council and its employees about their obligations to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation and other data protection laws.
- To monitor compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation, including the assignment of responsibilities, awareness-raising and training of staff involved in the processing operations and related audits.
- To provide advice where requested about data protection impact assessments and to monitor their performance.
- To co-operate with the supervisory authority (the Information Commissioner's Office).
- To act as the contact point for the Information Commissioner's Office on issues related to the processing of personal data.

1.9.3. The Data Protection Officer in Orkney Islands Council is the Head of Legal and Governance.

1.10. Limitations and Conditions

1.10.1. The delegation granted in this Scheme shall be exercised having regard to and in accordance with the Council's other constitutional documents, including:

- The Council's Standing Orders.
- Scheme of Administration.
- Financial Regulations.
- Contract Standing Orders.

1.10.2. The delegation granted in this Scheme shall be exercised as follows:

- On the basis that it will not result in actual expenditure exceeding that set out in the relevant part of the approved budget(s) to the extent that this could not be contained by the relevant Officer viring budget in accordance with the Financial Regulations.
- On the basis that it will not result in actual income falling below that set out in the relevant part of the approved budget(s) to the extent that this could not be contained by the relevant Officer viring budget in accordance with the Financial Regulations.
- On the basis that it will not result in expenditure exceeding that set out in the relevant part of the Capital Programme for the financial year in question.
- Subject to the member of the public or, in the case of employment matters, employee, being notified, in writing, of any right of appeal.
- To be consistent with any general or particular policy direction made by the Council.
- To be consistent with the Council's procedures, corporate standards and strategies.
- To be consistent with any qualifications required to exercise the delegation.
- To be consistent with agreed service objectives.
- Subject to the Health and Social Care Integration Scheme for Orkney.

1.10.3. Chief Officers and the Chief Internal Auditor may choose not to exercise the powers delegated to them on any occasion they deem appropriate. Should this be the case, the matter should be referred to the appropriate Committee/Sub-committee for consideration.

1.11. Further Delegation

1.11.1. In the absence of the Chief Executive, a member of the Corporate Leadership Team is authorised to exercise the powers delegated to the Chief Executive by this Scheme, unless prohibited by any statutory provision from so doing.

1.11.2. The Corporate Leadership Team currently comprises the four Corporate Directors, the Chief Officer of the Orkney Health and Social Care Partnership, the Head of Legal and Governance and the Head of Human Resources and Organisational Development.

1.11.3. A Chief Officer is authorised in the absence, or on the written instruction, of the Chief Executive or Corporate Director to exercise the powers delegated by this Scheme which relate to his/her service, unless prohibited by any statutory provision from so doing. A list of Chief Officers forms Appendix 1 to this Scheme.

1.11.4. A Chief Officer may authorise any member of his/her staff to act for them in respect of any duties and responsibilities delegated in terms of this Scheme. The Chief Officer must consider the role of the officer they intend to delegate those powers to and whether the officer has appropriate qualifications and experience.

1.11.5. Any officer using delegated powers will be responsible for their actions. However, if an officer delegates their powers to another officer, this will not relieve the delegating officer of his/her responsibility for the duties they have delegated.

1.11.6. Proper Officers should ensure any delegation of statutory powers and duties is recorded.

1.12. Consultation

1.12.1. In using the authority delegated to them, Chief Officers may, where appropriate, consult the Convener, the Leader, the Depute Leader, the Chair and Vice Chair of the relevant Service Committee and/or Ward councillors, if they consider that a proposed decision or action is of a non-routine nature and is likely to significantly and directly affect the Ward interests of Ward Members. This does not apply to proposed decisions or actions that have a general effect throughout the area, or are of a routine nature covered by this Scheme.

1.13. Commencement

1.13.1. This Scheme will apply and have effect on and after 4 July 2023.

1.14. Review

1.14.1. The Council may review this Scheme annually.

1.14.2. Subject to adequate publicity being given to such amendments, the Chief Executive shall have the power to amend or alter this Scheme:

- To correct any textual or minor errors.

- To make any consequential amendments required as a result of a decision of the Council.
- To reflect changes in legislation and/or established practice.

2.2. Chief Executive

Statutory and Proper Officer Duties

The Chief Executive is appointed as the Head of the Council's paid service, in terms of Section 4 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 and is the Chief Adviser to the Council on matters of policy.

The Chief Executive is also appointed by the Council as Returning Officer for Local Government and Community Council Elections and as Counting Officer in respect of Referenda and to discharge the functions of and act as Appropriate Officer in terms of the Representation of the People Act 1983 as amended and all other relevant legislation. The Chief Executive, as Returning Officer, will make appropriate arrangements for any circumstances in which he/she is unable to act in person, and will therefore appoint one or more Depute Returning Officers to discharge his/her functions where appropriate.

The Chief Executive acts as the Proper Officer in terms of Sections 33A, 34, 43 and Schedule 7, 50B(2), 50C(2), 50F(2) and 231 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973 and otherwise in relation to the arrangements for the conduct of business arising at any meeting of the Council, or its Committees and Sub-committees.

The Chief Executive also acts as the Proper Officer in terms of Section 33A of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973 (Declaration of Acceptance of Office); Section 7 of the Ethical Standards in Public Life etc. (Scotland) Act 2000 (Register of Members' Interests) and the relevant provisions of the Local Governance (Scotland) Act 2004.

Specific Delegated Powers

The Chief Executive holds the following delegated powers to enable him/her to carry out these functions, without prejudice to all statutory duties, responsibilities and powers exercisable by him/her, as follows:

Emergency and Urgent Powers.
2.2.1.	To determine all matters of urgency which require decision by the Council during the period from the date of the local government election to the date of the first meeting of the Council following that election.
2.2.2.	To determine, in consultation with the Convener, the Leader and Depute Leader and/or the Chair and Vice Chair of the relevant Service Committee, all matters of urgency which require decision by the Council during the period from the date of the last General Meeting of the Council to the date of the Local Government Election.
2.2.3.	To take action on behalf of the Council where considered necessary in the event of an emergency, or as required as a matter of urgency, following consultation with the Convener, the Leader and Depute Leader and/or the Chair and Vice Chair of the relevant Service Committee.
Human Resources.
2.2.4.	To designate Chief Officers to perform such functions of the Chief Executive as may be required.

2.2.5.	To establish new or additional permanent posts, with the exception of chief officers.
2.2.6.	To determine designations and salary levels of permanent posts of chief officer (Corporate Directors and Heads of Service).
2.2.7.	To designate suitably qualified officers to act as Appropriate and/or Statutory Officers, in accordance with relevant legislation.
2.2.8.	In consultation with Human Resources, to create temporary posts, excluding posts of chief officer, of over four years' duration.
2.2.9.	In consultation with the Head of Finance and Human Resources, to create temporary posts of chief officer of up to two years' duration.
2.2.10.	To make any long term temporary posts permanent, provided the post meets the following criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The individual having a minimum of 4 years' continuous service under the contract for that post, including any temporary amendments to that contract.</li> <li>• Funding for the post being contained within an approved baseline budget.</li> <li>• It is not currently anticipated that the post will be at risk.</li> <li>• Where the required hours of the post might vary, any appointment should be to the minimum known full-time equivalent requirement.</li> <li>• The postholder originally obtaining the post via a recruitment and selection exercise which complies with Council policy.</li> </ul>
2.2.11.	To determine applications from employees in terms of the Voluntary Severance and Early Retirement Policy, with the exception of applications from Chief Officers.
2.2.12.	To vary the conditions of the Resettlement Allowances Scheme in specific cases, subject to the total amount to be granted to any individual employee not exceeding the maximum entitlement under the Scheme.
2.2.13.	To determine the Council's public holidays, following consultation with trade unions.
2.2.14.	To authorise the payment of acting-up allowances, provided that adequate funding has been identified within the relevant budget.
Civic Hospitality.
2.2.15.	To arrange, in consultation with the Convener, and to incur reasonable expenses connected with, civic hospitality, including the reception and entertainment of distinguished persons and of persons connected with local government and other public services, and to authorise Chief Officers to so arrange.
2.2.16.	To make arrangements for artistic direction at corporate civic events, including payment of fees, payment of expenses and the cost of supply cover, if required.
2.2.17.	To determine the level of fee to be paid to professional artists.
Representations in respect of Local Government or other Public Services.

2.2.18.	To make representations, following consultation with the Leader and Depute Leader, to the European Union, the United Kingdom Government, the Scottish Government, the Convention of Scottish Local Authorities, and such other relevant bodies or agencies with regard to matters affecting local government, or other public services.
Land and Property Assets
2.2.19.	To acquire land and property assets required for strategic reasons, subject to funding being identified.
2.2.20.	To determine requests, following consultation with the Chair and Vice Chair of the Policy and Resources Committee, for the waiving of hire fees for use of Council property.
Donations.
2.2.21.	To determine requests for donations to charitable or voluntary bodies, or for community benefit, of not more than £1,000.
Twinning Activities.
2.2.22.	To determine disbursement of the annual budget for twinning activities, including requests for financial assistance relating to the twinning arrangements between Orkney and Hordaland.
2.2.23.	To award, where appropriate, travel grants to community groups wishing to travel to Norway.
Elected Members.
2.2.24.	To determine attendance by Councillors at any conference, seminar, course or meeting held within or outwith the United Kingdom, including attendance at meetings of bodies to which members have been nominated or appointed by the Council.
2.2.25.	In consultation with the Chief Financial Officer, to determine the scheme of elected members' allowances in terms of the Local Governance (Scotland) Act 2004 (Remuneration) Regulations 2007.
Foreign Travel.
2.2.26.	In consultation with the Chief Financial Officer, to authorise foreign trips by employees in respect of international professional development opportunities and/or service priorities.
Common Seal of the Council.
2.2.27.	To act as and to designate suitably qualified officers to act as the Proper Officer in connection with the signature of, and affixation of the Common Seal of the Council to, deeds and other documents.
Statutory Notices.
Fees and Charges.

2.2.29.	In consultation with the Chief Financial Officer, to set fees payable to local interpreters.
Legal Actions and Claims.
2.2.30.	To negotiate and settle legal actions and claims by or against the Council, over £50,000, excluding any associated claim for expenses, after consultation with the Chief Financial Officer, the Solicitor to the Council and any other relevant Chief Officer.
Community Councils.
2.2.31.	To implement schemes of assistance to Community Councils.
Education Appeals Committee.
2.2.32.	To select members to sit on the Education Appeals Committee, as and when required, depending on availability and the nature of the appeal.
2.2.33.	To recruit independent members to sit on the Education Appeals Committee, as and when required.
Civil Contingencies.
2.2.34.	To exercise strategic responsibility in respect of the Council's functions relating to civil contingencies.
Regulation of Investigatory Powers.
2.2.35.	To act as the Council's Senior Responsible Officer in terms of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Scotland) Act 2000.
Harbour Authority – Role of Duty Holder.
2.2.36.	To nominate a minimum of two and up to a maximum of three members of the Corporate Leadership Team to act as additional Duty Holders for the Harbour Authority to ensure continuity during election periods.
Flag Flying.
2.2.37.	In consultation with the Convener, Leader and Depute Leader, to fly a flag from either the Council Offices or Kirkwall Town Hall, provided the request (from an organisation not included within the flag flying protocol) meets the undernoted criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• No political element to the activity.</li> <li>• No commercial element to the activity.</li> <li>• No significant cost to the Council.</li> <li>• Flying the flag does not conflict with another event already included in the approved flag flying protocol.</li> </ul>

2.3. Corporate Director for Strategy, Performance and Business Solutions

The following matters are delegated to the Corporate Director for Strategy, Performance and Business Solutions:

Operational Responsibility.
2.3.1. ## 2.12. Chief Social Work Officer

The Chief Social Work Officer is a statutory appointment of the Council by virtue of Section 3 of the Social Work (Scotland) Act 1968.

The Chief Social Work Officer is appointed for the purposes of the Council's functions under the Social Work (Scotland) Act 1968 and under those other enactments listed in Section 5(1B) of that Act. In broad terms, those functions cover all social work and social care services whether provided directly by the Council, in partnership with other agencies, or procured by the Council and provided by others on its behalf.

Under the Public Bodies (Joint Working) (Scotland) Act, 2014, the Council's Chief Social Work Officer is required to be a co-opted non-voting member of Orkney's Integration Joint Board.

The qualifications required for the post are set out in the Qualifications of Chief Social Work Officers (Scotland) Regulations 1996.

The Chief Social Work Officer is required by section 5(1) of the 1968 Act to carry out the duties of the post under general guidance issued by Scottish Ministers.

Responsibility for values and standards.
The Chief Social Work Officer should:
2.12.1.	Promote values and standards of professional practice, including relevant National Standards, and provide a clear statement of expectation of social service workers and employers (consistent with the Scottish Social Services Council's Codes of Practice).
2.12.2.	Ensure that these values and standards are communicated on a regular basis, adhered to and reviewed periodically.
2.12.3.	Work with Human Resources to ensure that all social service workers meet the requirements of the Scottish Social Services Council's Code of Practice and that all registered workers meet the requirements of their regulatory body.
2.12.4.	Support and advise managers in maintaining and developing high standards of practice and supervision.
2.12.5.	Ensure that only registered social workers undertake those functions reserved in legislation or are accountable for those functions described in guidance.
2.12.6.	Ensure that there are effective governance arrangements for management of the complex balance of need, risk and civil liberties, in accordance with professional standards. Where the local authority's corporate policy on risk does not reflect this balance, the Chief Social Work Officer is required to bring this to the attention of the Chief Executive and to contribute to the development of appropriate governance arrangements.
2.12.7.	Ensure appropriate advice is provided on corporate workforce planning and quality assurance, including safe recruitment practice, probation/mentoring arrangements, managing poor performance and promoting continuous learning and development for staff.

2.12.8.	Actively promote continuous improvement, raising standards and evidence-informed good practice, including development of person-centred services that are focussed on the needs of the service user.
2.12.9.	Oversee the quality of practice learning experiences for social work students and effective workplace assessment arrangements, in accordance with the Scottish Social Services Council's Code of Practice for Employers of Social Service Workers.
2.12.10.	Ensure that appropriate systems are in place both to promote good practice and to identify and address weak and poor practice. The Chief Social Work Officer should work with managers to ensure these systems are effective and, where this is not the case, the Chief Social Work Officer has the responsibility for bringing this to the attention of the Chief Executive and contributing to the development or improvement of such systems.
2.12.11.	Ensure that significant case reviews are undertaken into all critical incidents either resulting in, or which may have resulted in, death or serious harm.
2.12.12.	Take final decisions on behalf of the local authority in relation to a range of social work matters, including adoption, secure accommodation, guardianship and other statutory decisions required from time to time.
2.12.13.	Contribute to reports to the Chief Executive and elected members – providing independent comment where necessary – on the findings of relevant performance reports, setting out: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Implications for the local authority, for services, for service users and carers, for individual teams/members of staff/partners as appropriate.</li> <li>• Implications for delivery of national and local outcomes.</li> <li>• Proposals for remedial action.</li> <li>• Means for sharing good practice and learning.</li> <li>• Monitoring and reporting arrangements for identified improvement activity.</li> </ul>
2.12.14.	Report to the local authority on any other social work related issues.
2.12.15.	Prepare an annual report to the local authority on all of the statutory, governance and leadership functions of the role.
Access.
To discharge these responsibilities effectively, the Chief Social Work Officer needs:
2.12.16.	Access to people and information across the local authority, including the Chief Executive, elected members, managers and frontline practitioners, partner services and agencies.
